

About Dayton Parts, LLC

Dayton Parts, LLC employs nearly 300 men and women in its manufacturing, sales and distribution operations; located in multiple facilities in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania and in Alberta, Canada. Our manufacturing plant features state-of-the-art taper spring manufacturing equipment and is capable of producing an infinite number of leaf spring designs, including advanced technology high-stress types.

Dayton Parts complete product offering of brake, spring, steering, suspension and driveline product lines are unrivaled in content, quality and coverage. We supply the most complete, single source product offering available to the independent after-market.

Today, Dayton Parts, LLC strives to employ groups of highly skilled specialists who ensure we will sustain and develop our prominent role in the aftermarket industry. With continued growth we will be able to offer challenging career opportunities to our associates at all levels in the organization.